

Save the date
Saturday, March 7, 2020

Cedars-Sinai Department of Neurology Presents
Dystonia Patient Community Conference

This free conference is open to the public and geared toward patients with dystonia and their families/caregivers.

Please register online or contact Bridget Frommel at bridget.frommel@cshs.org or 310-248-6704.

cedars-sinai.org/dystoniaconference

In collaboration with the Dystonia Medical Research Foundation

Cedars-Sinai Department of Neurology Presents Dystonia Patient Community Conference

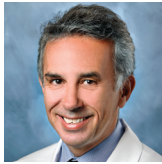

March 7, 2020 • 7:30 a.m.–12:30 p.m. • PEC 6 and 7

Cedars-Sinai Department of Neurology will present the latest updates on clinical advances and treatment options for dystonia. This free conference will provide patients and their families with reliable tools to monitor their wellbeing, discuss the surgical therapy of dystonia and review current treatments and medication.

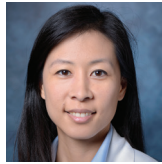

Agenda

7:30 a.m.	Registration opens with breakfast and refreshments
9 a.m.	What is Dystonia? A Historical Perspective
9:30 a.m.	Not Only for Wrinkles: Botulinum Toxin Treatment for Dystonia
10 a.m.	Break
10:30 a.m.	DBS For Dystonia – 20 Years Later. What Did We Learn?
11:00 a.m.	Dystonia Medical Research Foundation: What Does the DMRF Do?
Noon	Adjourn

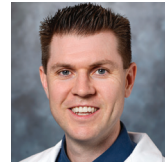

Speakers

Michele Tagliati, MD
Caron and Steven D. Broidy
Chair in Movement Disorders
Director, Movement
Disorders Program
Professor, Neurology
Vice Chair, Department of Neurology

Echo E. Tan, MD
Neurologist
Movement Disorders
Department of Neurology

Elliot Hogg, MD
Neurologist
Movement Disorders
Department of Neurology

Location

Cedars-Sinai Medical Center
PEC 6 and 7
127 S. San Vicente Blvd.
Los Angeles, CA 90048

Please park in Lot P4, and parking will be validated for the day.

Please register online or contact Bridget Frommel at bridget.frommel@cshs.org or 310-248-6704.

cedars-sinai.org/dystoniaconference

